Trip to the Ancient Forest/Chun T'oh Whudujut

On the way to Barkerville, we stopped at the Ancient Forest and it was amazing. The trees were super large and high the air was fresh and the greenery was a really nice vibrant green. The water was really clear when we walked over a bridge. All of the bridges were made out of wood and had grips to make sure no one slips and gets hurt when it rains.

Barkerville day 1

Once we got to Wells, we checked-in to go set up the beds, and then we went to Barkerville. Once we look at all of the old buildings, and ate Chinese food at the Lung Duck Tong. After dinner, we went back to Wells' school, played outside for a bit then went back in to get ready for bed and go to sleep.

Barkerville day 2

On day two we ate breakfast and got ready to head to Barkerville. once we arrived at Barkerville we
